

James Richard Duell

(11 Feb 1947 – 15 Jul 1992)

---

The Washington Post, July 20, 1992, p. D4

James Richard Duell

A memorial service in celebration of the life of James R. Duell will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, July 23, 1992, at Kay Spiritual Life Center, American University, 4400 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. (parking available at student parking lot, Nebraska and New Mexico Aves., NW). Interment was held Saturday, July 18, at Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Duell died in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, July 15, 1992. He was born in Washington, D.C. on February 11, 1947, spent his childhood in Mississippi, where he graduated from Benoll High School in 1965, and from Mississippi State University in 1969. He later completed two years of graduate work at Mississippi State University, after which he returned to Washington, D.C. in 1971 to accept a position with the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Until retiring in 1992, Mr. Duell held executive-level positions with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the most recent was Director of Information Services Programs.

In addition to many friends and colleagues, Mr. Duell is survived by his father and mother, Richard and Frances Duell of Clarksdale, MS, and two sisters, Susan Marie Gordon and Linda Ann Hayes, both of Memphis, TN. In lieu of flowers, it is requested that contributions be sent to a charity of choice.