

The Evening Star, August 22, 1873, p. 4
Local News

J.C. Seitz mentioned in the letter to the New York Sun copied in yesterday's Star as having been lost on the steamer Wawaset was a son of Mr. George Seitz, the well known baker. Any person rescued who saw Mr. Seitz upon the steamer is requested to leave word at the residence of Mr. J.F. Seitz, No. 1009 New York avenue, in order that the very great anxiety of the family may be relieved.